Financial support:

Guest lecturers could apply for an Erasmus+ grant through their home institution's International Office to support their participation in the event.

There is no registration fee required for the international week at Universidad Francisco de Vitoria. Participants will be responsible for covering their own travel, accommodation, and daily allowance expenses. Catering and social activities will be provided for confirmed participants as stated on the program schedule.

Food/Catering:

The lunch will be provided at the campus on site. Additionally, there will be two dinners organized as a networking opportunity. Please inform us if you have any dietary restrictions or allergies.

Facilities:

Our classrooms are equipped with Wi-Fi and a projector. Additional materials such as a whiteboard, speaker or printed materials can be arranged by the university up on your request. If you like us to print documents, please let us know at least a week beforehand.

Accommodation:

Those selected will be send information regarding accommodations in the area once the application is approved.

Transfer information:

The university can be reached through public transport or by taxi services such as Uber and Bolt. For public transport you can use the following bus lines:

- From Moncloa: Lines 657, 659
- From Aluche: Lines 561, 561-A, 561-B
- From Majadahonda / Pozuelo: 650, 561, 561-A or 561-B

Bus tickets still need to be paid in cash. Metro cards for Madrid can be bought at every metro station using cash and card.
